

German American Day

L.A.

Alpine Village
TORRANCE, CA

German Traditions, Family Fun, History, Music, Food and Oktoberfest.

From the best German Music to modern Food and German Tradition, Dance, History Exhibits, Kid's entertainment, and traditional Oktoberfest - on Sunday, October 8, 2017, from 10 AM to 6 PM

you will find everything at the Alpine Village in Torrance, California.

Starting with an ecumenical Church service at 10 am in and around the Alpine Village Wedding Chapel, and continuing in the Big Festzelt (Tent) at 11 am, and in the "Clubhouse", where Exhibits and modern music and performances are located, the Festival is inviting all Germans, German Americans and friends of German culture to participate in this family fun event.

The German American Day L.A. is held under the Auspices of the German Consulate General of Los Angeles, with participation of the Clubs of the German American League (DAV). Prominent German-American guests such as Emmy Award-winning actor Eric Braeden as well as members of L.A. Galaxy Star Squad will partake in the program. Live music by popular festival band The Fabulous Bluebirds as well as performance by local German dance groups and children choirs will ensure great entertainment. The L.A. Turners Museum at the Alpine Village will officially open it's doors on October 8 as well!

The Los Angeles Turners will officially open their Museum on October 8, during the German-American Day celebration at Alpine Village. The Turners Museum is located in Suite 204.

This year we are not only celebrating the 30th anniversary of the German-American Day (established in 1987), but also 50 years of Los Angeles' and Berlin's City Partnership. The LA Turners already congratulated Berlin during the International German Turnfest.
